

Session 1: European Financial Geographies in Flux I

Chair: David Bassens

- Grandi & Citarella - Internationalization of Italian banking system and foreign trade patterns of Italian SMEs: a co-development case study
- Karreman - Crisis in the Financial Periphery: Geographical Diversification of Multinational Banks across Central and Eastern Europe
- Labrinidis et al. - Banking Integration in the Eurozone -- An Uneven Process
- Van Meeteren et al. - Putting the crowbar in place: the building of a single European financial space (1985-2008)
- Discussant: Wojcik

Session 2: European Financial Geographies in Flux II

Chair: Reijer Hendrikse

- Pan - The Geography and networks of Chinese banking activities in Europe
- Sokol - Financialising Eastern Europe: A Financial Chains Approach
- Van Hamme & Medina-Lockhart - An assessment of metropolitanization in the post-crisis period in Europe
- Wojcik - Investment banking centres since Lehman Brothers
- Discussant: Susanne Heeg

Session 3 European Financial Geographies in Flux III

Chair: Michiel Van Meeteren

- Beaverstock - BREXIT and the death of the City's global talent pool and financial networks
- Engelen & Dörny - Probing response strategies of networked elites to the newly politicised sweetheart deals in two key corporate tax transfer havens. The examples of Luxembourg and the Netherlands
- Hall - Respatialising elites: Chinese migration in London's international financial district
- Waiengnier et al. - Location strategies of advanced services in Brussels
- Discussant: Martin Sokol

Session 4 European Financial Geographies in Flux IV

Chair: Susanne Heeg

- Bassens - 'The Apple-ization of Finance'? Reflections on the imminent FinTech 'revolution' in the financial industry
- Fernandez & Hendrikse - Unpacking the offshore backbone of global capital
- Haerter et al. - The Evolution of Financial Sector Lobbying in the EU
- Knight, Wojcik, and O'Neill - Visible Presence: how fintech firms internationalize
- Discussant: Ewald Engelen